

Tractors Group in Havana to Make a Deal

HAVANA (AP)—The American mission to exchange tractors for prisoners arrived by air today and was greeted by middle-ranking officials of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government.

The four members of the mission were received at the airport by Major Luis Crespo of the Institute of Agrarian Reform; Enrique Cabre, chief of machinery of the institute; and Fernando Otero, aide to President Osvaldo Dorticos.

The group went from the airport to the Havana Riviera Hotel.

Castro left for Oriente Province before the arrival of the mission. Before leaving Miami the group declared its "humanitarian purpose" is to free 1,200 captured invaders by exchanging 500 tractors for them, as originally proposed by Castro.

The four man team of technical experts departed at 5:26 a.m. on the hour's flight to Havana with the avowed hope of working out a satisfactory tractor for prisoners trade in the next couple of days.

A one-man protest demonstration greeted the U.S. negotiators as they went through final departure procedures at Miami International Airport.

Douglas R. Voorhees, a local real estate man known for his vocal advocacy of causes, loudly accused the team of going to Cuba to "submit to ransom, to blackmail."

He charged that the non-governmental team of experts was violating the Logan Act which bars negotiations by private citizens with foreign governments.

Voorhees demanded that the Dade County (Miami) police arrest the U.S. team. The police instead kept Voorhees to one side of the departing group but let him talk on.

The Kennedy administration, which supports the Tractors-for-Freedom drive, has told the group it is not violating the Logan Act. The technical team, while hopeful Castro would quickly agree to a swap because he needs tractors, was apprehensive that the unpredictable prime minister might demand terms unacceptable to the American committee.

Voorhees was the only protester to show up at the airport through there had been rumors there might be trouble.

The non-government team arrived here from Washington late Monday night amid a brief scuffle. Local police were tipped that some violent opponents of the prisoners exchange plan would stage an airport protest. The police whisked the experts from their plane to their airport hotel rooms through side tunnels. But the demonstrations never came off.

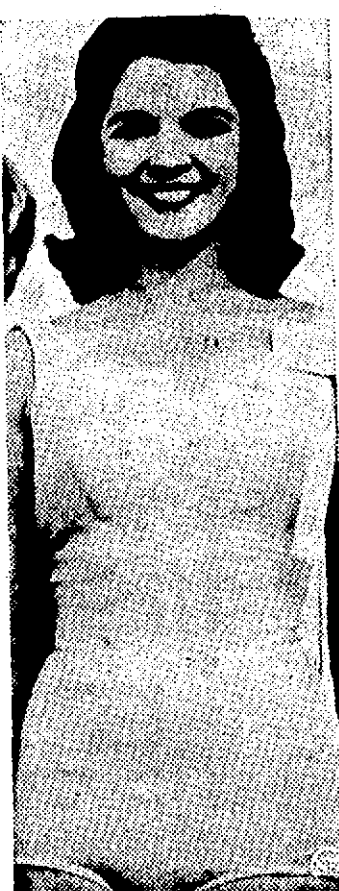

A spokesman said the U.S. team had no specific appointment to meet with Castro personally in Havana.

In a pre-departure statement, the American group said it was on a humanitarian mission to conduct technical negotiations and would have nothing more to say publicly before its planned return to the United States Thursday.

The technical delegation has limited powers to negotiate with terms set by its parent Tractors-for-Freedom Committee of prominent U.S. citizens.

Team members were hopeful that Castro would be sufficiently anxious to get the several million dollars worth of farm-type tractors.

More Work Hours in Big Industry

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today a strong pickup in working hours and employment in heavy industry in May, particularly in autos and steel.

A Labor Department report amplifying earlier May job totals said the economy is continuing to show extra seasonal gains.

The work week of the average factory worker moved up more than seasonally from 39.3 hours in April to 39.6 hours in May—the fourth increase in working hours in as many months. The work week has increased nearly a full hour since January, but is still a bit less than a year ago.

Ray Larson, a Labor Department manpower statistics expert, said the steady increase in the work week is a strong indication that employers will continue adding to payrolls.

The number of workers on non-farm payrolls rose by 500,000 to 52.5 million, almost double the usual rise for May. This included a 150,000 job increase in durable goods industries, an area in which employment had fallen by nearly 900,000 from 1960.

The largest gains from April were in steel and auto industries and in plants fabricating metal parts for the auto manufacturers. Job increases were reported, however, throughout hard goods manufacturing.

The figures today elaborated on data released nearly two weeks ago showing that over-all employment rose in May by more than a million to 66,774,000 and unemployment declined by nearly 200,000 to 4,768,000.

The unemployment figure is still 1.3 million more than a year ago. The idle figure is due to jump up again to about 5.5 million this month when the usual flood of students enter the labor force seeking summer jobs.

Despite the improvement in steel and auto employment, one out of eight regular workers in both industries was still unemployed in May, a much higher proportion than a year earlier.

With the increase in the factory work week and a one-cent average increase in hourly earnings, weekly earnings of factory workers were up to $92.66 in May. This was $1.09 more than in April and more than $2 higher than in January.

Manufacturing employment, which normally shows a small decline in May, rose by 150,000 to 15.7 million, a level still well below last year.

Shoes Troubled, So Man Sues

SLEMER, Tenn. (AP)—Robert E. Young has filed suit here asking $80,000 in damages for foot injuries he says he received from a new pair of shoes.

Young's suit claims that a "dangerous and injurious chemical" used in making the shoes caused his feet to become swollen and irritated, leaving him unable to walk for days.

The suit named the International Shoe Co. of Bolivar, Tenn., and a shoe store here as defendants.

Housing Bill Likely to Draw Fight in House

By JOE MALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A thumping 64-25 Senate passage for the $6.14-billion housing bill gave encouragement to the Kennedy administration today over the House floor fight expected in a few days.

The House Rules Committee is to meet on the legislation Thursday and is expected to clear it for debate starting next week.

Fifty-two Democrats and 12 Republicans supported the measure on final passage in the Senate Monday, with 17 Republicans and 8 Democrats opposed.

This "as the heaviest margin piled up in the Senate for any of the major items on President Kennedy's 1961 legislative program.

Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., chief sponsor of the bill, told a reporter he felt that with enactment of this measure there would be no need for omnibus housing legislation next year and perhaps for a longer time.

For about a decade Congress has been passing big housing bills almost every year.

But Sparkman pointed out that in the 1961 bill for the first time such key programs as urban renewal, public housing, farm housing, college dormitories, and veterans' housing are being put on a long-term basis.

Another Alabama, Democratic Rep. Albert Rains, will serve as floor manager for the legislation in the House. The bill approved by the House Banking Committee is substantially similar to the Senate version.

Rains said he did not expect too much trouble with the new moderate income family program which kicked up a big Senate row and was knocked out of the bill temporarily last Thursday.

But he said a House fight was in prospect over public housing and the methods of Treasury advances used to finance many of the programs. These often are denounced as backdoor spending.

Youths Admit to Series of Murders

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—Two teen-agers, in a tale of tragic irony, say they embarked on seven slayings in five states because as long as they had killed one "we might as well keep on."

But the man they thought they had killed didn't die. Had they quit there, they wouldn't be facing murder charges.

There's another irony. Both James Douglas Latham, 19, Maureeville, Tex., and George Ronald York, 18, Jacksonville, Fla., say they want to die. They'd prefer the electric chair. But the states with seemingly the strongest cases execute by other means—Kansas by hanging and Colorado by the gas chamber.

What started it? The Army, they claimed at a news conference in Salt Lake County jail Monday. They complained about army harassment. They objected to racial integration in the Army and to serving under Negro officers.

Though they expressed some offhand regret for some of the killings, they didn't for the slaying of John A. Whitaker, an elderly Negro railroad porter in Tullahoma, Tenn., who was robbed and shot to death.

"He was black," York explained. And Latham added: "We don't feel bad about killing a nigger."

Both are AWOL from the Army. They fled a disciplinary unit at Fort Hood, Tex., May 24. Latham was serving six months and was to get a bad-conduct discharge for taking $40 from a fellow soldier. York had been given six months for being AWOL.

"We got what we were working for," said York, "to get out of this stinking rat race on the outside."

But York said he doubted they would have killed anyone else if they had known that Edward J. Guldrez, the man slugged and left for dead near Baton Rouge, La., had survived.

British Complain Over Gold Steps

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges said today a high British official has complained to him about some steps taken by the United States in its campaign to lick the gold-dollar problem.

Hodges told a news conference he spent a half hour Monday discussing British-American financial relations with Frederick J. Erroll, Britain's minister of state of the Board of Trade.

The commerce chief said he and Erroll talked about "the irritants"—a phrase which Hodges attempted to pronounce with a British accent.

Asked to describe the irritants, Hodges said, "Buy American, ship American, things like that."

In an effort to reduce the U.S. balance of payments deficit, the United States has taken steps to require spending of foreign aid dollars in this country. It also has ordered post exchanges abroad to stock American, rather than foreign, goods.

Goldwater Warns of More Spending

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., charged today that Kennedy administration spending programs are "playing right into the hands of Kremlin leaders."

Goldwater said the strategy of Soviet Premier Khrushchev and others in the Kremlin is to force situations that will bleed America white.

"Higher taxes and more inflation are precisely what Mr. Khrushchev and his advisers want for the United States. And the present administration is rushing to provide them," Goldwater said in a speech prepared for the Sales Executives Club of New York.

Goldwater contended Kennedy's New Frontiers program contains the seeds of economic destruction in the United States but is being pushed through Congress "in the phony name of 'crisis' and 'emergency'."

Four Years Youth Is Unconscious

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—For four years and one day, 17-year-old William Patrick O'Brien of North Little Rock has been unconscious.

The youth was shot in the head by his twice-widowed mother who then killed her two other sons and herself, police records show.

But, Billy Pat was found alive in his home by officers the morning of June 11, 1957, and doctors, working feverishly for hours, kept him alive.

After undergoing treatment at one hospital for a year and then being moved to another for still one more year of treatment, Billy Pat was finally brought to Gray's Memorial Hospital here where he has been the past two years.

He is fed intravenously and breathes through a tube inserted in his windpipe.

A doctor said the bullet entered Billy Pat's brain and damaged the portion which controls movement and sensory reception. The area performing "vegetative" functions such as breathing, digesting and temperature was not damaged.

The doctor said the mother's choice of weapon, a .25 caliber pistol, probably saved the boy's life. A larger bullet, the doctor observed, would have been fatal in the same area.

Asked how much longer the youth might hold on to life, the nurse said, "there's no way of knowing... he could go on indefinitely."

His care is financed by a small estate left by his father and by state Welfare Department and the clinic.

JFK Asks More Payroll Tax to Up Jobless Pay

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy proposed to Congress today a broad expansion of the unemployment compensation system to increase the amount and duration of benefits and the payroll taxes to pay for them.

Kennedy called for the most extensive overhaul of the jobless insurance plan that has been proposed since it was enacted as part of Social Security during the Roosevelt New Deal.

Most of the suggested changes are long-range in character. They wouldn't go into effect for several years, some not until 1968. This gives Congress plenty of time to take a long hard look at the proposals.

The program was accompanied by administrative statements that the federal-state unemployment compensation system has long been in need of reform. It was stated that the system has proved its worth through the years, since enactment in 1935, not only in helping idled workers but in bolstering the economy in bad times.

No cost figures were immediately announced, nor was there any estimate of the amount of additional revenue that would be raised by the proposed higher payroll taxes.

Kennedy has been working since he took office in January on a permanent revision of the unemployment compensation program—part of the Social Security System enacted during the Roosevelt New Deal.

Federal action to raise the amount of benefits would be a departure from tradition. Until now the level of benefits has been left to the states to fix, with the result that benefits vary widely from state to state. The nationwide average is about $32 per week.

Congress twice has tried to lengthen duration of benefits for temporary periods to combat privation among the jobless during recessions. This happened first during the administration of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower after the 1954 recession.

Again this spring Congress enacted a temporary program to extend by a maximum of 13 weeks the benefits a worker can receive after exhausting his regular benefits. In most states regular benefits run for a maximum of 26 weeks.

SCS Aid Has Training in Georgia

Herbert Greenhaw, Soil Conservation Aid with Hempstead County Soil Conservation Service Work Unit, has just returned from Athens, Georgia, after completing three weeks sub-professional training at the Athens Training Center located on the University Campus.

This was the sixty-third training session sponsored and directed by the Soil Conservation Service under the very capable leadership of Jackson Bennett, Administration Officer and Warren Turcott, Training Officer, both of Athens.

Twenty-three Soil Conservation employees representing nine states of the South East attended the session.

Dean, William Tate of the Georgia University gave the group a warm welcome on opening day followed by an inspiring message on "Human Relations" by Hamp Burns, Assistant, Arkansas State Conservationist.

Engineering, Agronomy, Biology, Forestry, and other related Soil Conservation Service subjects were studied along with field tours which included some major water shed projects in Georgia.

Although practices and methods used in such state vary widely, Greenhaw pointed out that through cooperation with other agricultural agencies the Soil and Water Conservation Program is advancing rapidly in all represented states.

He feels this added technical training has greatly improved his ability to assist in carrying out conservation measures in this area.

Ike Discusses Cuba Invasion Disaster

BY HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Old soldier Dwight D. Eisenhower still says no invasion can be successful without adequate air cover if there is opposing air power by the defense.

Gen. Eisenhower, who directed allied landings in World War II, made his statement Monday in commenting on the abortive invasion of Cuba by forces opposed to the regime of Fidel Castro.

The statement, at a news conference, came a day after new Republican National Chairman William E. Miller declared President Kennedy "rescinded and revoked the Eisenhower plan to have the Cuban freedom fighters protected by American air power."

The former president also said the United States cannot very much longer "keep on ice" the matter of resuming nuclear testing. He told the news conference "the time comes when we have to fix a date" beyond which the nation would not feel bound to abstain from testing.

"If we are just going to stand around talking," the Soviets could be testing without the United States knowing it, he asserted. Eisenhower said that before he left the White House "I told my people we definitely would take steps" toward fixing a date. So far as he knows, he said, no date has been set.

Eisenhower was here for a day of political activities. Several thousand persons sweltered in hot and humid weather to greet him at midday at Lunken Airport. He was showered with ticker tape and confetti as he rode in an open automobile to downtown Cincinnati.

The windup was a $100-a-plate dinner at Cincinnati's Music Hall with a packed house of 1,500 on hand.

Sen. Thruston Morton of Kentucky, who recently resigned as chairman of the Republican National Committee, was the principal speaker. He called upon the Kennedy administration to define the boundaries beyond which communism would not be tolerated.

"If we want peace in our time we must draw the line," Morton said. "I don't know where the line is; the administration must find it. But we can't stand this constant erosion."

Eisenhower made a plea for Republican voices to be heard in constructive criticism.

"We are against irresponsibility," he said. "We don't want to turn over our responsibility to some small clique in Washington. We want progress but we want it to be responsible."

Pennsylvania is named for William Penn and means Penn's forest.

Fifi D'Orsay Wants to Play it Straight

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Fifi D'Orsay, the saucy Parisienne who has never seen Paris, is hoping folks will forget her as the French bombshell.

"I want to act," she says. "I want to do all kinds of roles—big ones, small ones, old girls, not-so-old girls—I'll do anything. But everybody thinks of me as the French bombshell. I've got to get rid of it."

That will be the neatest trick of the year, Fifi in repose is like a ticking bomb; you never know when she is going to explode.

Dramatic acting is the latest turn in Fifi's long career. She can be viewed tonight on NBC's Thriller playing an irritated landlady. Not a spit curl, not even an "ooo-la-la."

Fifi's problem is not only beating the bombshell tag. She also is dealing with a new generation of producers. Incredible as it seems, some have never heard of Fifi D'Orsay.

When she did a Perry Mason TV show, a young production aide asked her to spell her name on the telephone. She did so and added: "If you haven't heard of me, ask your mother. Or better yet, ask your father."

Fifi D'Orsay is one of those enduring names of show business. The endurance is surprising when you consider how little the film public has been exposed to her. Her heyday was 1932, when she made a series of movies at Fox.

"I was Will Rogers' discovery," she said. "He happened to remember me from vaudeville. When Fox needed a French girl for 'They Had to See Paris,' he told the studio to send for me."

Fifi, who prides herself in always speaking the truth, was instructed by the studio bosses to tell reporters she was from Paris. She was a French-Canadian who never been across the pond. She maintained the masquerade for months until an astute reporter named Hubbard Keavy pinned her down.

Paragould Opens $160,000 Park

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — Reynolds Park, a $160,000 facility complete with zoo, swimming pool, museum and ball park, will go to the City of Paragould on death of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Reynolds.

Reynolds, part-owner of a soft drink bottling firm here, said his will contains the sole condition that Paragould maintain and operate the park which he has built since 1951.

Reynolds said he dreamed of establishing such a park for 25 years before he had enough money to start it.

"I promised the Lord that if he would help me get into some kind of business where I could help myself, I'd use the money to help give some pleasure to others."

The park has never made money, but he doesn't want this dream to be a foolish one, he said, "but we think it is worthwhile."

Sharper Than a Serpent's Tooth

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Why are children such a heartbreaking, thankless lot today? I was born and reared in this town and have many real friends. In recent years, because of my invalidism, the number more than doubled.

When one of my sons married, these friends, over 200 strong, came bringing gifts in appreciation of the many things I'd done for them when in better health.

I come from a family which has always been devoted to one another so among these gifts were priceless family heirlooms. My daughter - in - law gave most of them away and didn't so much as write a thank-you card. This was most awkward for me. My son was taught to be grateful for any kindness shown him. Now, he and his wife are not only ungrateful but indifferent. My husband and I have been invited to their home but once since they married. When we do drop in to see how the children are they treat us like strangers. I am heartbroken over the whole business. —What-To-Do?

Dear What-To-Do: Shakespeare said "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child!" But don't blame your son too much. A wife can be a strong influence, either for good or bad. Your insensitive daughter-in-law may change as the years pass. Be realistic. Accept the situation and go on with your own life. There are compensations. Think of your many friends!

Dear Helen: I am a boy 12 years old, with four sisters and one brother. My parents are so good to the girls but treat me so bad. My brother like cast-offs We can't even have good blankets on our beds. The girls get everything, even watches, yet here I am the oldest of the lot with none.

My godmother gave me a wrist watch. One of my sisters broke it right off. When I cried, my mother slapped me. Then grandma bought me a pocket watch. Another sister broke that. If grandma didn't live so far away I'd leave home and live with her. Sometimes I wonder what's the use of living.

My little brother is treated the same. My sisters and parents read my mail so please print your answer. They also read your column. —Heartbroken Billy

Dear Billy: You're learning early that if you don't speak up for yourself, no one else will. Hard though these experiences may be, they are a good lesson. If your sisters break your watches, they or your parents, should pay for the repairs. Look them in the eye and tell them so, and be sure to stand up straight, head high, chin in and shoulders squared when you do it. Study your history. It's the aggressive, not defensive, tactics which win the wars.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address for her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "A Happy Marriage."

Kennedy May Be Doing Too Much

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's rest these past few days with his aching back gave him time to wonder whether he is trying to do too much by himself.

He is a must-do and must-see kind of president. In his case it means reading four newspapers a day, going through reports himself, rounds of conferences with his aides, using the telephone to get answers, endlessly meeting folks, making speeches and, more recently, going places.

But in doing so much by himself he's used up a good deal of time which might have otherwise been spent reflecting on problems here and overseas.

His European trip, made primarily for conferences, took an extravagant toll of his hours and energy with speeches, banquets, public appearances, and wreathe-laying.

President Eisenhower took a more relaxed view of the presidency. He said he didn't read the papers much. He depended a lot on his staff to keep him informed and bring him proposals for yes or no decisions.

Kennedy promised action and he is providing it. At this early point in his presidency—when it's of the utmost importance that he learn the problems as best and fast as he can—he alone can say whether he is spreading himself too thin. Eisenhower was criticized for not doing enough. It will be ironic if Kennedy winds up being criticized for trying to do too much.

Graduates Told to Help Philosophy

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 130 graduates of the University of Arkansas Medical Center were asked Sunday to help formulate a public philosophy for America. The commencement speaker, Dr. James P. Dixon, president of Antioch College at Yellow Springs, Ohio, said "The inquiry for a public philosophy has appeared for our educational institutions. It should be the common objective of all citizens to examine these institutions with a view to requiring them to be concerned about public philosophy." The Medical Center awarded degrees to 82 graduates from the School of Medical Technology.

P. B. Arsenal to Be Expanded

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — A multi-million dollar construction project at the Pine Bluff Arsenal will include and updating of one of the facility's missions, an arsenal spokesman said Sunday. The arsenal is operated by the Army's Chemical Corps. It was not disclosed whether the project would involve work in the Arsenal's chemical, biological or radiological activities. But Edward Woodford, arsenal information officer, observed that the facility's present radiological capabilities were relatively insignificant. Cost of the project was not disclosed.

SUSPENSE

A Short Short Story

RICH MAN, POOR MAN

By LESTER ARNO

The Rich Man and the Poor Man sat down to luncheon in the quietly swank dining room of the old and distinguished club.

They were celebrating their birthdays, and they had been meeting once a year since they were boys. As children they had grown up in the same neighborhood and now they were men, and the Rich Man lived in an elegant part of town and the Poor Man lived on the same street where he had been born.

Since their youth, the paths of the two men had been divergent. Yet the difference in their personal fortunes had not detracted from their old friendship. The Rich Man did not condescend; the Poor Man did not fawn.

The years had been good to them. They were both gray of hair and ruddy of skin. They were both handsome men. They raised their glasses and toasted each other on the anniversary of their birth.

The meal was served leisurely and efficiently. They ate quietly and made inquiry about each other's families and reminisced about old times. It was much like the birthday luncheons they had enjoyed together for some 40 years.

Then the Rich Man spoke. "In a

Man in Comma

Is Identified

BLYTHERVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A man who remained in a coma almost a week then died before he could tell authorities his name has been identified, Mississippi County authorities said Monday.

Officers said he was Leonard Dotson, 50, who lived in the Yarbrough area. Identification was made by relatives.

Sheriff William Berryman said Dotson was a incoherent when found near Yarbrough last Monday. He was hospitalized at Blytheville and later transferred to the State Hospital in Little Rock, where he died Friday.

An investigation is continuing, but officers said they do not think foul play was involved.

Yanks, Tigers Closing in on the Indians

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kansas City defeated Cleveland 7-5 in 10 innings Monday night and cut the Indians' American League lead to one game over New York and Detroit.

New York moved .001 percentage points ahead of idle Detroit with a 3-1 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

The Chicago White Sox defeated Baltimore 9-8, and Boston beat Minnesota 10-8 in the only other games scheduled in the AL.

In the only National League game scheduled, San Francisco beat Los Angeles 7-4, dropping the Dodgers a half-game behind first place Cincinnati.

The Yankees, working behind the four-hit pitching of right-hander Bill Stafford, broke up a two-hit shutout by losing lefty Ted Bowsfield (2-2) and came from behind with three runs in the sixth inning. Singles by Tony Kubek, Mickey Mantle and Elston Howard, a force out by Bill Skowron and a double by Hector Lopez did it.

Stafford (4-2), winning his fourth in a row, held the A's hitless until the fifth inning, when Leroy Thomas opened with a single and scored on a double by Ken Hunt, who was cut down trying for a triple. Stafford walked two and struck out seven for his third complete game—the eighth in 14 games by the Yankees staff, which had produced only six in the first two games.

The A's tagged the Indians with their third defeat in 16 games when Heywood Sullivan singled for his fourth hit in the 10th and pinch-hitter Leo Pasada followed with a two-run, two-out homer off relief ace Frank Funk (7-4). Kansas City tied it 3-2 with two runs in the ninth as Cleveland missed double plays. Jerry Walker, seventh Kansas City pitcher, saved it for reliever Jim Archer (4-1) when Vic Power bunted into a force out and Kirkland and Wodnie held field out with two on base.

Roy Sievers drove in three runs with a pair of homers for the White Sox, who nailed it on Al Smith's solo homer in the eighth off relief ace Hoyt Wilhelm. Dick Hyde (1-1) was the loser Don Larsen (2-0), acquired Saturday from Kansas City, was the winner in relief.

A walk and Chuck Schilling's two-out single gave Boston the deciding run in the seventh. The Twins out-hit the Red Sox 15-11, and slugged three home runs, but left 17 on base. The Delock (4-2) won it with relief help.

The Giants, beating right-hander Roger Craig (3-4) for the first time in nine decisions since 1955, dropped the Dodgers with three runs in the fifth inning for a 7-2 lead. Orlando Cepeda's double scored the clincher. Billy O'Dell (2-3) was the winner.

Macon Turns Back Travs by 4-2 Score

By VERNON BUTLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Thad Tillotson hasn't exactly brought disaster to the stumbling Atlanta Crackers, but the personable young right-hander has certainly induced a strange sort of scoring drought in the ranks of the defending Southern Association champions.

The Crackers went 51 games without drawing the collar this season but they have been zeroed in three of their last 12 games, and each time the starting pitcher was 20-year-old Tillotson.

Shreveport applied the whitewash 4-0 Monday night, handing Atlanta its sixth defeat in the last seven games. Victim Tillotson had his season record adjusted to 5-4 in the process.

Birmingham shaded Chattanooga 5-4 and cut the Lookouts' league lead to two games, and Macon—still on the rebound under bustling Jerry Snyder—trimmed Little Rock 4-2. Mobile and Nashville were not scheduled.

Buddy Blomker baffled the Crackers with an assortment of slow curves and posted his first victory. Blomker tired in the ninth and was removed after he walked the first Cracker and hit the second. Alex George, Bill Kern and Frank Cipriani drove in the Shreveport runs.

Mac Campbell, who gave up only one hit, was relieved in the third by Carl McMurtrey who struck out nine and gave up only two hits the rest of the way.

The Junior boys journeyed to North Little Rock Wednesday night.

Some Riders Will Go to Penitentiary

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Hinds County Sheriff J. R. Gilroy, whose jail is overcrowded with "Freedom Riders" had authority today to transfer them to the spacious 16,000-acre state penitentiary.

The authority was granted after a dozen more segregation-testers were convicted Monday to raise the total to 96 in city and county jails.

The arrests began May 24, three days before Diane Nash of Nashville, Tenn., coordinating secretary for the Nashville Student Non-Violent Movement said the riders "plan to fill up the jail" in Jackson and Montgomery, Ala. Twenty-six others have paid fines or posted bond.

The Board of Supervisors said in their order that "by reason of such overcrowding, Hinds County is unable with its own facilities to provide necessary housing and work as required by statute for its prisoners."

The board said that at Parchman, the sprawling prison farm 150 miles northwest of Jackson, "adequate public work may be made available to them so they may lawfully receive credit for time spent in confinement."

Judge Asks Help in His Campaign

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Judge Paul Wolfe of Fort Smith says he has asked Arkansas Sens. J.W. Fulbright and John L. McClellan to back his campaign to be named to a newly created Arkansas federal judgeship. The moving federal judgeship was one of many federal judicial posts created by legislation recently signed by President Kennedy.

He Will Listen to His Son Now

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Sgt. Carl Ennis of the Trenton Police says he'll pay more attention to his son's warnings from now on.

Ennis said the boy, Chris, 6 took a bite of his father's ice cream bar. The sergeant took it back and swallowed a sizable portion although the boy cried, "Wait, daddy."

Asked what was wrong, Chris said, "Never mind now, daddy, you've already swallowed my loose tooth."

Ben Lomond Man Fatally Injured

DEQUEEN, Ark. (AP) — Jerry Royce Gore, 19, of Ben Lomond was fatally injured Sunday night when he attempted to pass another car and smashed into a bridge railing on U.S. Highway 70-71 near here.

A passenger in Gore's car, Jr. Wayne Day, 20, of Ben Lomond, was hospitalized here in serious but not critical condition.

Authorities said Day was pinned in the wreckage for almost an hour before he could be freed. He died in a hospital several hours after the accident.

Gore was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Gore of Ben Lomond.
